

Supreme Court of Illinois

Monday, January 12, 2009

The Court Made the Following Announcement:

At the hour of 3:00 p.m., other business being suspended, the Supreme Court of Illinois convened and special proceedings were held in tribute to Abraham Lincoln in this bicentennial year of his birth and to dedicate the bust of Lincoln, titled "Prairie Lawyer - Master of Us All", presented by the Illinois State Bar Association to the Supreme Court as a gift to the people of the State of Illinois on behalf of its lawyers.